

Christopher Trigg
INSURANCE BROKERS

Training Programme 2021

We are looking for a dynamic individual to join our team and who is looking for a career within the insurance industry

Who Christopher Trigg Ltd are...

We are an independent insurance broker based in Rickmansworth, founded by Christopher Trigg in 1975. We have a Commercial Insurance Department which broker a range of commercial insurance products and a Private Clients department dedicated to our predominately high net worth client base.

We strongly believe in providing a high level of service to all our clients coupled with a continuous commitment to the quality, knowledge and understanding of our client and their industry, and the insurance products we offer.

Our Culture

Our firm has been able to support our client's for almost 50 years because of the strength of our culture. And today, we're creating an organisation that is more inclusive, more transparent and more accountable every day, anchored to our Values.

We look for talent and we support our people to fulfil their potential with rewarding and resilient careers. We empower our team with the skills, tools and flexibility they need to be at their physical and mental best.

It's why we're so proud of the culture we are building - an open, inclusive and diverse workplace in which everyone has the opportunity to be their best. What's important to us is that you are able to bring your very best-self to work, live and breathe our values and deliver brilliant outcomes for our clients and the firm.

We also want you to champion our culture and ways of working - based on trust in each other, empowerment in our roles, accountability for our actions, and mastery of our skills and career development at Christopher Trigg.

Who we are looking for

We are looking for a dynamic individual to join our team and who is looking for a career within the insurance industry. Our ideal candidate would be ambitious and self-motivated to learn the industry and progress through our 2 year training programme to achieve the maximum from this unique opportunity.

“ At Christopher Trigg, we recognise and reward hard work and the right attitude. I am personally involved in our Company Training Plan as I strongly believe in supporting our team to achieve their individual goals and aspirations. I take great pride in seeing individuals grow within the company and seeing them develop their personal and professional skills. We look forward to welcoming fresh talent into our team allowing them every opportunity to commence a career in our exciting industry.

Dominic Trigg - Managing Director

Our promise

We will provide a comprehensive 2 year training programme which will be structured to ensure the employee is shown all aspects of Christopher Trigg Ltd. We will support the individual to achieve their CII Certification and progress towards their CII Diploma.

What's included

Case Study Alex Shanahan

After leaving sixth form, I was yet to decide on a career path. I'd always had a hard-working and ambitious nature and my goal was to learn an industry and start a career. After an interview with Dominic, I knew that this was the opportunity I was looking for. The work would be a challenge as I would need to learn a complex industry, but I was assured I would be given the training needed. I was offered the job and my career as an insurance broker begun.

Fast forward 10 years and I found myself sitting with Dominic and signing my agreement to become a Company Director. Not a fairy tale ending, but the beginning of a new chapter.

If you would like a career in the financial services industry with a company who fully support your growth, come and join our team!
