

To all of our clients, partners and contacts, The Christopher Trigg team are here to help.

It's still business as usual for us, and we're here to support you with any of your enquiries with the same excellent standard of service.

The welfare of our team and clients is of the highest priority. In light of the global issues concerning COVID-19, we are continuing to monitor all developments, advices and guidance of the relevant authorities on a day by day basis.

- We will still be contactable by the normal means of communication (phone and emails)
- We will still be continuing to provide the same high level of service to all of our clients
- We will be offering alternative methods of communications for client and partners, i.e. contacting through telephone or conference calls
- We will be providing support for team members to engage in remote working where necessary

We appreciate these are unprecedented and challenging times for businesses and their people. We would like to reassure you that we have implemented appropriate business contingency plans so we can continue responding to your requirements as usual and in the event that additional or necessary measures are implemented either locally or nationwide.

We will also be following the news and current situation regarding Coronavirus very closely, and will be sure to update you on any changes to the above.

Wishing everyone the very best whilst we all navigate through this together.

Take care,

Dominic Trigg
